

The Books of the Minor Prophets

(God's True Story)

Pre-Session Warm Up

[Teacher, review what we have learned so far about the Bible.] Last week we learned about the five books called the Major Prophets. Today we will learn about the 12 books called the Minor Prophets.

Opening Prayer

Father, we're so glad that You have not kept Your will for our lives a secret. You have seen to it that everything we need to know about life was written down in the pages of the Bible, Your word. We pray that You would make the eyes of our heart and our spiritual ears tuned in to You this morning, so that we won't miss anything You want to say to us. In Jesus name, we pray. Amen.

Memory Verse:

How can a young man cleanse his way? By taking heed according to Your word. (Psalm 119:9)

Lesson

The books of the Minor Prophets are just as important as the ones in the Major Prophets, but each book is shorter—that is why they are called Minor. Let's read the names of the Minor Prophets from our Table of Contents together.

Most of these prophets preached during the times of the kings of Israel whose stories are told in 2 Kings and 2 Chronicles. [Teacher, use a Bible Book poster to point out these books.]

[Teacher, explain what the captivity is about.

After the children of Israel came back from Egypt and Joshua helped them conquer the land, they had Judges who ruled over them for about 300 years. Then, they begged God for a king.

They were ruled by kings for many years. The first king was Saul, the second king was David. Then Solomon ruled the people, and so on. Some of the kings followed after the ways of God, like David. But, some of the kings were bad, like King Ahab and his wicked wife, Jezebel.

The books of First and Second Kings, and First and Second Chronicles are the record books, like diaries, that tell us the stories of what these kings were like and what they did.

The last chapter of 2 Chronicles tells the story of Zedekiah, the last of the kings. He was so unfaithful to God that He finally had to punish the people.

Let me read to you from the Living Bible...

2 Chronicles 36:11-15 [Teacher, read...]

Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king.... His reign... was evil so far as the Lord was concerned, for he refused to take the counsel of Jeremiah the prophet, who gave him messages from the Lord... Zedekiah was a hard and stubborn man ..., for he refused to follow [God]. All the important people of the nation, including the High Priests, worshipped the heathen idols of the surrounding nations, thus polluting the temple of the Lord in Jerusalem. Jehovah the God of their fathers sent his prophets again and again to warn them, for he had compassion on his people and on his temple.

Again and again over the years God sent prophets to the various kings to warn them to follow His ways. But they made fun of the prophets.

2 Chronicles 36:16

But they mocked the messengers of God, despised His words, and scoffed at His prophets, until the wrath of the Lord arose against His people, till there was no remedy.

God could bare the people's unfaithfulness no longer and He brought the Babylonians against the children of Israel to punish them. Let's read how they destroyed Jerusalem and took the people captive.

2 Chronicles 36:18-20

And all the articles from the house of God, great and small, the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the king and of his leaders, all these he took to Babylon. Then they burned the house of God, broke down the wall of Jerusalem, burned all its palaces with fire, and destroyed all its precious possessions. And those who escaped from the sword he carried away to Babylon, where they became servants to him and his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Persia.

God allowed the Babylonians to punish the people for not being faithful to Him. They looted the temple of all the gold and silver things, and then they burned the place down and led the people off 900 miles to present day Iraq where they became slaves to King Nebuchadnezzar until the kingdom of Persia conquered Babylon.]

Each of the twelve books of the Minor Prophets tells part of God's story. Some of the men that wrote these books lived before the children of Israel were sent off to captivity, some lived during the time of the captivity, and some lived after the time of captivity.

Pre-Exilic Books

Before the captivity, God sent messenger after messenger to warn the people. He told them that He must punish them for all their sins. But, he also assured them that if they were sorry, confessed their sins, and repented from their wicked ways (that is, stopped sinning and started living righteously), that He would pour out His blessing upon them again.

Hosea

Hosea preached at a time when all seemed to be going well for Israel, but there was much hidden sin. God worked through Hosea in an unusual way. He allowed the prophet to go through some very painful family problems. Then God used those problems to show the Israelites that their relationship with Him was not right. Hosea preached against the people's sin.

Hosea 11:7

For My people are determined to desert Me. They call Me the Most High, but they don't truly honor Me.

Yet he told them of God's steadfast love in spite of their unfaithfulness.

Hosea 14:1-4

Return, O Israel, to the LORD your God, for your sins have brought you down. Bring your confessions, and return to the LORD. Say to Him, "Forgive all our sins and graciously receive us, so that we may offer You our praises. Assyria cannot save us, nor can our warhorses. Never again will we say to the idols we have made, 'You are our gods.' No, in You alone do the orphans find mercy." The LORD says, "Then I will heal you of your faithlessness; My love will know no bounds, for My anger will be gone forever.

God's arms were open wide if they would just come back to Him. And His arms are open for you and me, too.

Joel

During Joel's time the nation of Judah was facing severe problems. Swarms of locusts attacked crops, and a famine brought great suffering. Joel told the people that these hardships were a judgment from God for their sins. But, in the midst of all these problems, Joel reminded the people that God is always willing to forgive if we will turn our hearts back to Him.

Joel 2:12-13

That is why the LORD says, "Turn to Me now, while there is time. Give Me your hearts. Come with fasting, weeping, and mourning. Don't tear your clothing in your grief, but tear your hearts instead." Return to the LORD your God, for He is merciful and compassionate, slow to get angry and filled with unfailing love. He is eager to relent and not punish.

The message of hope in the book of Joel is that in spite of the judgment of God, He will restore His people and dwell with them.

Joel 2:28-30

"Then, after doing all those things, I will pour out My Spirit upon all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy. Your old men will dream dreams, and your young men will see visions. In those days I will pour out My Spirit even on servants—men and women alike. And I will cause wonders in the heavens and on the earth—blood and fire and columns of smoke.

Amos

Amos was a farmer, but he knew God's word. God saw this farmer's tender heart and asked him to take a message to the king of Israel.

Amos 1:1

This message was given to Amos, a shepherd from the town of Tekoa in Judah. He received this message in visions two years before the earthquake, when Uzziah was king of Judah and Jeroboam II, the son of Jehoash, was king of Israel.

Amos went boldly and listed the sins that God was going to judge. He challenged the people to confess their sins to God and repent. But the people ignored his preaching. So, Amos warned the people that they must prepare to meet God.

Amos 3:1-2

Listen to this message that the LORD has spoken against you, O people of Israel and Judah—against the entire family I rescued from Egypt: "From among all the families on the earth, I have been intimate with you alone. That is why I must punish you for all your sins."

Amos 4:12

"Therefore, I will bring upon you all the disasters I have announced. Prepare to meet your God in judgment, you people of Israel!"

Someday we will all have to stand before God and give an account for all that we have said and done; we need to be ready to meet God!

If you confess your sins and repent of them, God will not withhold His love from you. Just as God promised the people through the prophet Amos, God will reunite and rebuild your life.

Amos 9:11

"In that day I will restore the fallen house of David. I will repair its damaged walls. From the ruins I will rebuild it and restore its former glory.

Obadiah

God asked Obadiah to give a very powerful message to the country of Edom. He boldly listed the crimes the Edomites had committed.

The Edomites had rejoiced over the destruction of Israel by the foreign invaders. They hated Israel and actually celebrated when they saw the Israelites suffering hardships. But Obadiah gives them God's sentence of destruction.

Obadiah 15-16

"The day is near when I, the LORD, will judge all godless nations! As you have done to Israel, so it will be done to you. All your evil deeds will fall back on your own heads. Just as you swallowed up My people on My holy mountain, so you and the surrounding nations will swallow the punishment I pour out on you. Yes, all you nations will drink and stagger and disappear from history.

Obadiah's message still applies to us today. Never be so proud that you laugh when trouble comes to others. Remember that pride can lead you to a fall.

Jonah

Jonah is the only prophet God used who did not want to deliver God's message. We don't know why, but Jonah hated the people of Nineveh. They were known for the cruel ways they tortured their captives. Jonah wanted God to destroy them. He was afraid that God would be merciful and forgive them if they repented of their sins. So, when God asked Jonah to go to Nineveh, he ran the other way.

Jonah 1:3

But Jonah got up and went in the opposite direction to get away from the LORD. He went down to the port of Joppa, where he found a ship leaving for Tarshish. He bought a ticket and went on board, hoping to escape from the LORD by sailing to Tarshish.

God used a big storm to stop him and a big fish to turn him around.

Jonah 1:4-17

But the LORD hurled a powerful wind over the sea, causing a violent storm that threatened to break the ship apart. Fearing for their lives, the desperate sailors shouted to their gods for help and threw the cargo overboard to lighten the ship. But all this time Jonah was sound asleep down in the hold. So the captain went down after him. "How can you sleep at a time like this?" he shouted. "Get up and pray to your god! Maybe He will pay attention to us and spare our lives." Then the crew cast lots to see which of them had offended the gods and caused the terrible storm. When they did this, the lots identified Jonah as the culprit. "Why has this awful storm come down on us?" they demanded. "Who are you? What is your line of work? What country are you from? What is your nationality?" Jonah answered, "I am a Hebrew, and I worship the LORD, the God of heaven, who made the sea and the land." The sailors were terrified when they heard this, for he had already told them he was running away from the LORD. "Oh, why did you do it?" they groaned. And since the storm was getting worse all the time, they asked him, "What should we do to you to stop this storm?" "Throw me into the sea," Jonah said, "and it will become calm again. I know that this terrible storm is all my fault." Instead, the sailors rowed even harder to get the ship to the land. But the stormy sea was too violent for them, and they couldn't make it. Then they cried out to the LORD, Jonah's God. "O LORD," they pleaded, "don't make us die for this man's sin. And don't hold us responsible for his death. O LORD, You have sent this storm upon him for Your own good reasons." Then the sailors picked Jonah up and threw him into the raging sea, and the storm stopped at once! The sailors were awestruck by the LORD's great power, and they offered Him a sacrifice and vowed to serve Him. Now the LORD had arranged for a great fish to swallow Jonah. And Jonah was inside the fish for three days and three nights.

Although Jonah learned that he couldn't run from God, his feelings towards the Ninevites never really changed. He was angry when they repented.

Jonah 4:1-3

This change of plans greatly upset Jonah, and he became very angry. So he complained to the LORD about it: "Didn't I say before I left home that You would do this, LORD? That is why I ran away to Tarshish! I knew that You are a merciful and compassionate God, slow to get angry and filled with unfailing love. You are eager to turn back from destroying people. Just kill me now, LORD! I'd rather be dead than alive if what I predicted will not happen."

And as the book ends, God rebukes Johan for his wrong attitudes.

The message of hope in the book of Jonah is that God wants to extend His mercy to all people of every nation. After Jonah finally obeyed the Lord, the people believed his message and turned from their wicked ways to follow God.

Jonah 3:5

The people of Nineveh believed God's message, and from the greatest to the least, they declared a fast and put on burlap to show their sorrow. When the king of Nineveh heard what Jonah was saying, he stepped down from his throne and took off his royal robes. He dressed himself in burlap and sat on a heap of ashes. Then the king and his nobles sent this decree throughout the city: "No one, not even the animals from your herds and flocks, may eat or drink anything at all. People and animals alike must wear garments of mourning, and everyone must pray earnestly to God. They must turn from their evil ways and stop all their violence. Who can tell? Perhaps even yet God will change His mind and hold back His fierce anger from destroying us." When God saw what they had done and how they had put a stop to their evil ways, He changed His mind and did not carry out the destruction He had threatened.

Isn't it wonderful that God is merciful? There is no sin that God will not forgive! The Lord Jesus died for the sins of the whole world and offers salvation to everyone. God loves each of us and will forgive us if we repent.

Exilic Books

While they were in captivity, God continued to speak to His people through the prophets. He wanted them to know why they were being punished and to remind them that if they were sorry, confessed their sins, and repented from their wicked ways (that is, stopped sinning), that He would pour out His blessing upon them again.

Micah

Micah was a simple country preacher who loved to work with the common people. He had great compassion for people's problems. Micah reminded them, "Even though all these bad things are happening to us, we must still do right ourselves."

Micah 6:8

No, O people, the LORD has told you what is good, and this is what He requires of you: to do what is right, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God.

Micah encouraged the people with hope for the future. He told them that God would send the Messiah to save them.

Micah 5:2

But you, O Bethlehem Ephrathah, are only a small village among all the people of Judah. Yet a ruler of Israel will come from you, One whose origins are from the distant past.

And God has. That Promised One is the Lord Jesus Christ. Have you received Him as your Savior from sin?

Nahum

Nahum lived a 100 years after Jonah and God used him to preach a message of judgment against Nineveh, too. Although the Ninevites had repented at Jonah's preaching, they failed to teach their children to walk in the ways of God. So when those children grew up, they turned away from God and went back to wicked ways. Nahum told the Ninevites that their city would be totally wiped out because of their sins.

Nahum 1:9

Why are you scheming against the LORD? He will destroy you with one blow; He won't need to strike twice!

His prophecies came true; shortly after this warning Nineveh was completely destroyed. God does punish people that do not turn away from their sins.

Habakkuk

Habakkuk was a trained preacher who lived near Jerusalem. He lived at the time that Israel was facing an invasion by the Babylonians.

Habakkuk 1:6-7

I am raising up the Babylonians, a cruel and violent people. They will march across the world and conquer other lands. They are notorious for their cruelty and do whatever they like."

Habakkuk couldn't believe that God would raise up the Babylonians to punish the children of Israel. He cries out to God...

Habakkuk 1:12

O LORD my God, my Holy One, You who are eternal—surely You do not plan to wipe us out? O LORD, our Rock, You have sent these Babylonians to correct us, to punish us for our many sins.

God tells Habakkuk that He will not allow evil to continue; it has to be punished. But, He also reassures the people if they turn from their sins in faith, that God will deliver them.

Habakkuk 2:4

"Look at the proud! They trust in themselves, and their lives are crooked. But the righteous will live by their faithfulness to God.

What is important is that each of us turns to Him in faith. When you do that, your life will be filled with joy, no matter what circumstances you find yourself in.

Habakkuk 3:17-18

Even though the fig trees have no blossoms, and there are no grapes on the vines; even though the olive crop fails, and the fields lie empty and barren; even though the flocks die in the fields, and the cattle barns are empty, yet I will rejoice in the LORD! I will be joyful in the God of my salvation!

Zephaniah

For more than fifty years the nation had lived wickedly under kings. The people had become lazy and unconcerned about God. They had disobeyed God and relied on themselves.

Zephaniah 3:1-2

What sorrow awaits rebellious, polluted Jerusalem, the city of violence and crime! No one can tell it anything; it refuses all correction. It does not trust in the LORD or draw near to its God.

So, God asked Zephaniah to preach about His hatred for sin. Zephaniah warned them that God would punish them if they did not repent.

Zephaniah 3:5

But the LORD is still there in the city, and He does no wrong. Day by day He hands down justice, and He does not fail. But the wicked know no shame.

Zephaniah's message of hope to the people was that after the exile, if the people turned back to God, He would rescue them. God was longing to save them.

Zephaniah 3:17

For the LORD your God is living among you. He is a mighty savior. He will take delight in you with gladness. With His love, He will calm all your fears. He will rejoice over you with joyful songs."

Soon after Zephaniah's preaching, there was a national revival. God truly does keep His word.

Post-Exilic Books

After the punishment was completed, God allowed the people to go back to Promised Land, the land of Israel.

Haggai

Haggai preached during an exciting time. He was the first prophet to speak to the people after they returned from captivity in Babylon. Happy to be back in their own land, the Israelites began right away to rebuild God's house and to worship Him with their whole hearts.

Haggai 1:1

On August 29 of the second year of King Darius's reign, the LORD gave a message through the prophet Haggai to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Jeshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest.

But before they finished the temple, they lost interest. Haggai rebuked them for turning their attention to building fancy homes for themselves

Haggai 1:4

"Why are you living in luxurious houses while My house lies in ruins?"

He told them, "God wants you to finish the temple even if the work is discouraging at times".

Haggai 1:7-8

"This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: Look at what's happening to you! Now go up into the hills, bring down timber, and rebuild My house. Then I will take pleasure in it and be honored, says the LORD.

He reminded them that God can only bless us fully when we obey Him. Then God used Haggai to share some special promises of wonderful things that He will do for Israel in the future.

Haggai 2:9

The future glory of this Temple will be greater than its past glory, says the LORD of Heaven's Armies. And in this place I will bring peace. I, the LORD of Heaven's Armies, have spoken!"

Zechariah

Zechariah challenged the people to turn from their sins of selfishness and love of things and accept the coming Savior. Zechariah predicted many details concerning the coming Messiah, Jesus, God's promised Savior. He prophesied that He would enter Jerusalem as a king just before His death.

Zechariah 9:9

Rejoice, O people of Zion! Shout in triumph, O people of Jerusalem! Look, your King is coming to you. He is righteous and victorious, yet He is humble, riding on a donkey—riding on a donkey's colt.

And he described Jesus' death on the cross.

Zechariah 12:10

"Then I will pour out a spirit of grace and prayer on the family of David and on the people of Jerusalem. They will look on Me whom they have pierced and mourn for Him as for an only son. They will grieve bitterly for Him as for a firstborn son who has died.

Zechariah's message ends with God's promise that the Messiah will return a second time to judge His enemies and to deliver His people forever (ch. 14).

It is sad to know that Zechariah was killed by a mob of angry people who rejected his message from God. They did not want to believe that it was true. But during His life on earth the Lord Jesus fulfilled every prophecy about the first coming of the Messiah. And it is certain that He will fulfill all the predictions about the second coming as well! Isn't it exciting to know that we can trust God's Word?

Malachi

Several generations passed after Zechariah and Haggai challenged the people to rebuild the temple and return to God. They did listen for a time, but gradually they drifted away from God. They stopped worshiping at God's temple and no longer took care of it. Eventually God sent Ezra and Nehemiah to stir the people to turn back to Him. Then there was a revival; the people truly repented and worshiped God with sincere hearts. They repaired the temple and built strong walls around Jerusalem. But the revival lasted only a few years. Oh, the Jews continued to go through the motions of worship. But they did not mean it in their hearts. It was at this time in history, about a hundred years after God brought the Jews back to their land from Babylon, that Malachi preached.

Malachi saw the sins of his people, and God used him to rebuke Israel. His message was simple: Worship God with pure hearts and follow His laws completely.

Malachi 2:2

"Listen to Me and make up your minds to honor My name," says the LORD of Heaven's Armies, "or I will bring a terrible curse against you. I will curse even the blessings you receive. Indeed, I have already cursed them, because you have not taken My warning to heart.

God wants you to serve Him with a pure heart, too. Through Malachi, God promises that if you obey Him, He will bless you in ways far greater than you can imagine.

Malachi 3:10

Bring all the tithes into the storehouse so there will be enough food in My Temple. If you do," says the LORD of Heaven's Armies, "I will open the windows of heaven for you. I will pour out a blessing so great you won't have enough room to take it in! Try it! Put Me to the test!

This brings us to the close of our brief study of the Old Testament. Let's thank God for His Word right now.

Closing Prayer

Father, we want to thank You for all the promises you give us in Your word. Thank You for all those that have already come true: You sent Jesus to be born to a virgin, just as You said you would. Then Jesus died and rose again, just as You predicted. Thank You also for all Your promises that will come true in the future, too. We especially look forward to Jesus' return. You are a good and gracious God to have all of your prophecies written down in Your book, the Bible, so that we may come to know and love You. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.

Game CenterGod's Word Game

In order to find out what God's Word says, we need to know how to find our way around in God's Word!

Write the name of each book of the Bible (or a section of the Bible) on a separate index card. Mix up the cards and divide evenly between the players. Each player places his or her stack facedown in front of him- or herself. Then, at the same time, each player turns the top card from his or her stack face up and says the Bible book name aloud. Players compare face-up cards. Player who played the Bible book card that come latest in the Bible, collects face-up cards and add them to the bottom of his or her stack. (For example, if two people are playing and one player played the card for the book of Genesis and the other player played the card for the book of Luke, the latter player would collect both cards.) Repeat play until one player has all of the cards.

Review Questions:

1. How many books make up the Minor Prophets of the Old Testament? (12)
