

Elijah at Zarephath

1 Kings 17:12-16

God sent Elijah to Zarephath to live at the home of a poor widow during Israel's famine. He would be safe there from Ahab and Jezebel who wanted to have him killed.

The widow had only enough flour and oil to make cakes for her son and herself when the prophet arrived. "My son and I will eat this and then die," she told him.

Elijah told her, "Don't be afraid. You needn't worry about starving. God has promised to supply us with food. First make me a cake then make more for you and your son."

The widow believed Elijah and did as he said.
