

Since you have been raised to new life with Christ, set your sights on the realities of heaven, where Christ sits in the place of honor at God's right hand. Think about the things of heaven, not the things of earth.

(Colossians 3:1-2)

Search for the Lord and for His strength; continually seek Him.

(Psalm 105:4)

Let us hold tightly without wavering to the hope we affirm, for God can be trusted to keep his promise.

(Hebrews 10:23)

Since God chose you to be the holy people he loves, you must clothe yourselves with tenderhearted mercy, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience.

(Colossians 3:12)

The Lord is my shepherd, I have all that I need.

(Psalm 23:1)

Not that I was ever in need, for I have learned how to be content with whatever I have. I know how to live on almost nothing or with everything. I have learned the secret of living in every situation, whether it is with a full stomach or empty, with plenty or little.

(Philippians 4:11-12)

Don't love money, be satisfied with what you have. For God has said, "I will never fail you, I will never abandon you."

(Hebrews 13:5)

Yet true godliness with contentment is itself great wealth.

(1 Timothy 6:6)

What is causing the quarrels and fights among you? Don't they come from the evil desires at war within you? You want what you don't have, so you scheme and kill to get it. You are jealous of what others have, but you can't get it, so you fight and wage war to take it away from them. Yet you don't have what you want because you don't ask God for it. And even when you ask, you don't get it because your motives are all wrong—you want only what will give you pleasure. You adulterers! Don't you realize that friendship with the world makes you an enemy of God? I say it again: If you want to be a friend of the world, you make yourself an enemy of God. What do you think the Scriptures mean when they say that the spirit God has placed

Then he said, "Beware! Guard against every kind of greed. Life is not measured by how much you own."
(Luke 12:15)
