

Lesson 1: Salvation

"Lost and Found"

Would you like to have been around when the earth was formed so that you could have seen God do it? It must have been awesome to see something so big as our universe come out of nothing. Nothing...can you even imagine nothing? Even a dark empty closet has air in it!

Our earth is big, isn't it? At least it seems so until you think about all the stars shining at night. Each star is a sun, like our sun, with planets, such as our earth, rotating around it. And, to think our eyes can only see a portion of all the stars that are out there! It must be a very big God to be bigger than all of His creation!

God's gift to us, the Bible, tells us how our world began. We can find out some of the details by reading.

God's Creation

Who was here when the world was made?

Read the following verses to find out who was made the world and write their names in the box.

Genesis 1:1

In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.

Colossians 1:15-16

He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation. For by Him all things were created that are in heaven and that are on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers. All things were created through Him and for Him

Genesis 1:2

Now the earth was formless and empty, darkness was over the surface of the deep, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the waters.

Think of a triangle. It has three sides. Cover one side. It is not a triangle if a side is missing, yet with all sides, it is one triangle. God is like that. Three persons yet only one God. This is one of God's mysteries.

How did God feel about all the things He had created?

Genesis 1:31

God saw all that He had made and it was very good. And there was evening, and there was morning, the Sixth day.

4. _____

Look up Genesis 1:26. Who were people like when they were created? In what ways were they like Him?

5. _____

God's Perfect Creation Was Ruined

In Genesis 2, compare what God told Adam and Eve about the tree of the knowledge of good and evil with what the serpent told them about the tree in the following verses.

Genesis 2:15-17

The LORD God took the man and put him in the Garden of Eden to work it and take care of it. And the LORD God commanded the man, "You are free to eat from any tree in the garden; but you must not eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, for when you eat of it you will surely die."

Genesis 3:15

Now the serpent was more crafty than any of the wild animals the LORD God had made. He said to the woman, "Did God really say, 'You must not eat from any tree in the garden'?"

The woman said to the serpent, "We may eat fruit from the trees in the garden, but God did say, 'You must not eat fruit from the tree that is in the middle of the garden, and you must not touch it, or you will die.'"

"You will not surely die," the serpent said to the woman. "For God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God knowing good and evil."

(Summarize in your own words)

What God Said	What the Serpent Said

What would you have done if you had been Eve?

8. _____

Romans 5:12

How does Adam and Eve's sin affect us?

10. _____

Romans 3:23

11. _____

What is Sin?

God told Adam and Eve if they ate from the tree of knowledge of good and evil, they would die. And they chose to disobey. That choice resulted in a loss of fellowship with God for all mankind. Later, He gave a list of laws He wanted people to obey. Underline and number the Ten Commandments in the passage below:

Exodus 20:1-17

And God spoke all these words: "I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery. You shall have no other gods before me. You shall not make for yourself an idol in the form of anything in heaven above or on the earth beneath or in the waters below. You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, You shall not misuse the name of the LORD your God, for the LORD will not hold anyone guiltless who misuses His name. Remember the Sabbath day by keeping it holy. Six days you shall labor and do all your work, but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD your God. On it you shall not do any work, ... For in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, but He rested on the seventh day. Therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and made it holy. Honor your father and your mother, so that you may live long in the land the LORD your God is giving you! You shall not murder. You shall not commit adultery. You shall not steal; You shall not give false testimony against your neighbor. You shall not covet your neighbor's house... or anything that belongs to your neighbor."

Sin is not obeying God.

Do you know that you are a sinner and in need of God's forgiveness? _____

Do you believe that Jesus Christ was God the Son and took the penalty for your sins by dying on the cross? _____

Would you like to pray right now to thank Him for dying for you to pay for your sins? _____
